Who Is This Vendor Assessment For?

NelsonHall's Supply Chain Management Services Vendor Assessment for Exertis Supply Chain Services is a comprehensive assessment of Exertis SCS' supply chain management service offerings and capabilities designed for:

- Supply chain and planning managers monitoring the capabilities of existing suppliers of supply chain services and identifying vendor suitability for outsourcing services
- Vendor marketing, sales and business managers looking to benchmark themselves against their peers
- Financial analysts and investors specializing in the supply chain services sector.

Key Findings & Highlights

Established in 1978, Exertis Supply Chain Services (SCS) is a global outsourcing partner to many of the world's leading consumer electronics & hi-tech, industrial, pharmaceutical and medical device companies.

Exertis SCS' SCM service offerings include SC consultancy, materials sourcing, materials management, materials fulfillment and materials financing.

Exertis SCS' offerings are industry agnostic, though it targets the consumer electronics & hi-tech, industrial and life sciences sectors. Exertis' first customers were in the consumer electronics sector; five years ago, 100% of the business was in support of these clients. The business has since expanded and grown, and the mix is now CE (70%), industrial (15%) and life sciences (15%). It is targeting expansion into the U.S. market through expansion of existing client deals and new client wins.

In addition, Exertis SCS is leading the 'Blockchain in the Technology Product Supply Chain' project funded as part of the Irish Government's €75m Disruptive Technologies Innovation Fund (DTIF) in collaboration with the Centre for Applied Data Analytics Research (CeADAR) and Dublin based software company, Sonalake.

The company's intention is to bring to market a fit for purpose Blockchain platform for the Technology Product Supply Chain within three years.
