Key Findings & Highlights

This NelsonHall vendor assessment analyzes Infosys' offerings and capabilities in SAP Cloud Migration Services.

Infosys positions its SAP on cloud migration capabilities as a key driver of its clients' broader digital transformation. It builds offerings encapsulating all components, including infrastructure, application licenses, support services, and business process management.

Infosys places Cobalt at the core of its SAP cloud migration approach. It was initially launched as a set of services, solutions, and platforms to help accelerate clients' journeys to the cloud. It targeted CIOs and CTOs from a technology aspect to get clients out of their data centers.

In addressing its clients' requirements for migration to the cloud and in a run state, Infosys has built individual offerings for specific activities at different phases of the SAP cloud adoption lifecycle.

Buyers looking for a large-scale, global provider with a wide variety of offerings, tools, and accelerators to facilitate migration to the cloud should take an interest in this report on Infosys.
