Key Findings & Highlights

This NelsonHall assessment analyzes Capgemini's offerings and capabilities in FinTech services for the banking industry. Capgemini is one of a number of banking services vendors analyzed in NelsonHall's comprehensive industry analysis programs.

In 2015, Capgemini began delivering FinTech services for a global bank headquartered in the U.K. The engagement delivered robo-advisory capabilities for the bank's wealth management unit. The engagement was replicated at several other European banks within a few months of the first project starting. In 2016, delivery of robo-advisory engagements was expanded to U.S. based financial institutions. In July 2016, Capgemini began delivering FinTech services to startup financial institutions (FinTech startups).

The financial services business unit is responsible for FinTech services, in order to develop it with domain-specific capabilities for the FS industry.
