Who is this Vendor Assessment for?

NelsonHall's Learning Services profile on GP Strategies is a comprehensive assessment of GP Strategies' offerings and capabilities, designed for:

- Sourcing managers monitoring the capabilities of existing suppliers of learning services and identifying vendor suitability for learning services RFPs
- Vendor marketing, sales, and business managers looking to benchmark themselves against their peers
- Financial analysts and investors specializing in the learning services sector.

Key Findings & Highlights

This NelsonHall vendor assessment analyzes GP Strategies' offerings and capabilities in Learning Services.

Learning Technologies Group (LTG) operates in the workplace learning and talent industry. LTG acquired GP Strategies (GP) in 2021 and established them as its go-to-market services brand. The Group's Content and Learning Services division comprises GP, with LEO Learning (learning content and services), LEO GRC (governance risk and compliance), and PDT (DEI training) merging into GP and adopting their brand name in 2023. There is PRELOADED (a BAFTA-winning full-service games studio). LTG's other division is Software and Platforms, comprising various learning and HR technologies.

GP offerings comprise learning content, delivery, admin, tech, and consultancy services.

GP continues to enhance its services and technology, notably in leadership development and general skillsrelated content, including additional academies. It is also working on its next-generation platform offering for the SMB space, due to launch in 2024.

Organizations seeking a one-stop shop provider for innovative learning services and technology covering learning, the broader HR function, and overall business transformation, with deep expertise in learning content and platforms, should consider GP Strategies.
